

ACTO DEAD

HOMEWORKSMP (AP) - Autocrat waitwhatActo was CRUSHED and ANNIHILATED in a DEVASTATING and HUMILATING DEFEAT by Far Isle forces after he unleashed a COMPLETELY UNPROVOKED ATTACK upon Far Isle resident and well-known opposition figure BlueCreeper512.

The attack took place on and around the island of the Far Isle, where the tyrant initially refused requests to put away his weapons. He then flung his sword around and jumped around like a high and drunk mad man before attacking and murdering Ridgeway+ in cold blood and attempting to ASSASSINATE BlueCreeper512, no doubt to try and SILENCE the regime critic once and for all.

Initially it seemed like the dictator would succeed in his RAMPANT BLOODTHIRSTY QUEST for the COLD HEARTED DESTRUCTION of one of his most vocal critics, with BlueCreeper512 constantly forced onto the defensive. However, with the HEROIC intervention of fellow Far Isle resident, trusted friend and ally GrandmasterMud, akin to the counterattack of British and French forces at the First Battle of the Marne, the tide began to flip against the despot with him now VASTLY outnumbered and outgunned.

The final showdown took place at the Far Isle Rehab Center & Hotel, with the desperate autarch making a valiant last stand.

Unfortunately for him, the combined MIGHT and FURY of BlueCreeper512 and GrandmasterMud proved too much for him to endure as BlueCreeper512 delivered the final killing blow while the autocrat was trying to take cover on the mezzanine.

This violent assassination attempt not only further emphasizes the fact that the tyrannical despot Acto clearly cannot be trusted under any circumstances, but it also highlights a much more valuable lesson - the fact that even the toughest, most tyrannical, most dictatorial, most evil strongman can be completely and utterly OBLITERATED if, and only if, the people unite under one banner and stand shoulder to shoulder in solidarity with their fellow comrades against the tyranny.
